Exams’ Week Refuel

The week of exams here at MUS can be stressful. As a way to get you going in the morning, come by the library before your exam for Dunkin’ Donuts coffee or hot chocolate and a free pastry. U Kin’ Do It, and we can help.

Book Clubs

The Dystopia Book Club will meet Tues. Jan. 12 in the Loeb Room during Upper School lunch. Their selection is The Road by McCarthy with Brave New World as the alternate/additional book.

The Finer Things Book Club is reading Nick Hornby’s High Fidelity and meets Thurs. Jan. 28 in Elizabeth Crosby’s room (109) during OP.

The LS book club is reading Collins’s The Hunger Games and Pratchett’s The Color of Magic over the break and will meet Fri. Jan. 22 in the Loeb Room during Lower School lunch.

The Graphic Novels Book Club selections are Scott Pilgrim Vol.1: Scott Pilgrim’s Precious Little Life by Bryan Lee O’Malley and The Invention of Hugo Cabret by Brian Selznick. They will meet Fri., Jan.15, in Spencer Reese’s Office, LS103, during OP.

The Faculty Book Club is led by Lin Askew and will meet at a time TBA after reading Nick Hornby’s lastest, Juliet, Naked. Email Mr. Askew if you would like to join.
In October of this year, the MUS Library celebrated Teen Read Week with the "Read Beyond Reality" theme. Students and faculty checked out 217 books during this week. Each day they checked out a book, students were entered in a drawing for a gift card. The winners of the Upper School drawing were Will Whitley ($15 Coldstone gift card) and Michael Green ($15 Starbucks gift card). The Lower School winners were Walker Lee ($15 Coldstone gift card) and Nick DiMento ($15 Starbucks gift card).

Upper and Lower School students enjoyed the Harry Potter Trivia Contests conducted by Mr. Spencer Reese in his Hogwarts robe. Students won Harry Potter pins, Watchmen keychains, Superhero Kits, and candy. Mr. Reese received a chocolate frog from the library in appreciation for his efforts.

Continuing in the HP theme, spectators poured into the library to watch scenes from Harry Potter and the Sorcerer’s Stone on our new flatscreen tv.

Each day, students could fill out a 'Beyond Reality' trivia quiz with questions selected from the current reading lists. Those with the highest scores were entered into a drawing for prizes. Winners were Matthias Leung ($15 Barnes & Noble gift card) and Samuel Hecht ($15 Starbucks gift card).

MUS moms volunteered to bake cookies and distributed them to the students who came by the library on Tuesday and Thursday during O.P. Only a few crumbs were left.

On Wednesday and Thursday a special cake and cupcakes were served in celebration of our new Welcome Desk. Check out the library’s blog for more.

Is It Still Cheating if I Don’t Get Caught? by Bruce Weinstein
Whether it’s about the use of the internet--like downloading music or copying papers--or sports, friendship, family and school, teenagers often want to know: What’s the right thing to do? With five simple and clear ethical principles as a foundation, and plenty of out-of-real-life dilemmas as examples, Dr. Weinstein offers answers with a useful and reliable approach.

The Secret Lives of Boys by Malina Saval
This unprecedented look into the lives and social groups of boys across America is a parent and teacher's key to understanding the hidden hopes, fears, pains, and passions of their sons and students.

Manhood for Amateurs by Michael Chabon
The author questions what it means to be a man today in a series of interlinked autobiographical reflections, regrets, and reexaminations, each sparked by an encounter, in the present, that holds some legacy of the past.

Have a Little Faith by Mitch Albom
When an eighty-two-year-old rabbi from Albom’s old hometown asks him to deliver his eulogy, Albom becomes involved with a Detroit pastor--a reformed drug dealer and convict--who preaches to the poor and homeless in a decaying church. A timely, moving, and inspiring look at faith: not just who believes, but why.
