COLLEGIATE CIRCLE
The Collegiate Circle recognizes the most recent alumni who graduated within the last five years and who support the Annual Fund during their college years. We realize what a significant gift this represents to our young alumni and we value the generosity of these young men who have taken a leadership role in contributing to the Annual Fund and the school’s future success.

ANNUAL FUND SOURCES OF GIFTS

About the Cover:
MUS is a great school, and it gets better every year. This year was no exception, and your support is a large part of our success.

Thanks to you we have been able to hire and retain outstanding faculty who support and challenge our boys to achieve more than they ever thought possible. In the classroom. In the arts. On the fields and courts. In service to the community. We have been able to provide the facilities and the technology that allow our teachers and coaches to do their jobs with excellence. We have been able to say yes to requests for a materials tester for future engineers, instruments for budding musicians, and studio equipment for recording artists in the making.

Thanks to your generosity, we received a total of $2,757,698 from 2,204 donors, which included $1,382,964 in unrestricted Annual Fund giving.

Once again, our Board of Trustees and faculty and staff demonstrated their commitment with 100 percent participation in the Annual Fund. Sixty-three percent of our parents contributed $266,665, and 31 percent of alumni contributed $814,969 to the campaign. Our Lynn Society (73 members) gave $561,636, while the Thorn Society (424 members) contributed $535,500.

Through your donations, you benefited every student and teacher in myriad ways, large and small, including these recent campus improvements:

- Left-turn signal going south on Ridgeway at Primacy Parkway
- New stage used for our spring musical, Man of La Mancha, and at dances and events
- New heating and air-conditioning unit in Hyde Chapel
- Digital information screens in Sue H. Hyde Sports and Physical Education Center and Admissions Office
- Landscaping and new trees for Sue H. Hyde Sports and Physical Education Center
- New irrigation well to replace non-functioning well
- Renovations at the Headmaster’s House
- New roofs for the McCaughan Science Center and Fisher Fine Arts Wing
- Renovations to the Film Room to accommodate instrumental music classes, plus new instruments
- A materials tester for Materials Science students
- Upgrades to Bloodworth Studio recording equipment
- New carpet in lacrosse, baseball, and ninth-grade football locker rooms

Projects Completed Through Designated Donations

- Completion and dedication of Jacob Courtnay Rudolph Plaza (see page 55)
- Completion and dedication of Ruth and Jerry Peters Court plus funding of endowment (see page 58)
- Completion and dedication of Kroeker-Petrosyan Fencing Center (see page 60)
- Butch Petree Memorial seating area overlooking Stokes Stadium

We offer our heartfelt thanks for your help in keeping our school vital and strong and always improving. We hope that you will read the 2016-17 Annual Report with an appreciation for a great year and anticipation of great years to come.

In that spirit, please join us in welcoming Headmaster Pete Sanders, and look forward with us to all he will bring to our community.

Go, Owls!

ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIPS

Richard L. Essex, Sr. Scholarship
This endowed scholarship fund was established in 2000 in honor of Richard L. Essex, Sr. ’67 on his 50th birthday as a surprise from his children, Rick Essex ’92 and Ashley Essex Thayer and her husband, Jack. The fund provides tuition assistance to a motivated young man who seeks character development and academic excellence, but who otherwise might not be able to afford an MUS education.

Humphrey Estes Folk Scholarship
Humphrey Estes Folk, Jr. and his son, Humphrey Estes "Tripp" Folk III, established this fund in 1999 during the Doors to New Opportunities Campaign. The endowed scholarship provides funds for motivated young men who seek character development and academic excellence but otherwise could not afford an MUS education.

Edward E. Ford Foundation Scholarship
Established as a permanent endowment fund by a grant in 1980 from the Edward E. Ford Foundation of Washington, DC, the earnings provide general scholarship assistance to students who have demonstrated financial need.

Mary and Allen Gary Scholarship
Sam C. Gary ’62 established this endowment in 2014 in memory of his parents, Mary and Allen Gary. The fund provides need-based financial aid to students who show academic promise, leadership, and character, but require assistance to attend Memphis University School.

Mark J. Halperin Scholarship
This endowed fund was established in 2009 to honor Mark Halperin ’67 on his 60th birthday by his wife, Diane, and her parents, Mary and Maury Bronstein. The fund, in recognition of Halperin’s commitment to education and service to the school, provides tuition assistance to deserving students who might not otherwise be able to afford an MUS education.

Thomas E. Harrison Scholarship
Alumni, family, and friends established this fund in memory of Coach Tommy Harrison in 2010 to pay tribute to this “gentle giant” who had a profound influence on his students. Coach Harrison spent the last 13 years of his storied coaching career at MUS where he was an assistant coach of football and track, as well as the head coach of wrestling for several years. The income from this endowment provides need-based financial aid.

Joseph R. Hyde, Jr. Honor Scholarship
Joseph R. Hyde, Jr., a trustee for more than 20 years, established this scholarship fund to identify, attract, and reward students who have distinguished themselves in academics and who have developed strong qualities of character.

John E. Marcom, Sr. Scholarship
This endowed scholarship fund was established in 2005 by John E. Marcom, Jr. ’75 to honor his father, John E. Marcom, Sr., on his 75th birthday. The fund is a tribute to Marcom’s lifelong love of learning and commitment to education and provides tuition assistance to deserving young scholars who otherwise might not be able to afford an MUS education.

Carter Lee Murray Scholarship
Family and friends established this scholarship in 2005 in memory of Lee Murray ’94. Stacy and Stan Mullikin ’94 provided the initial funding and leadership to endow the fund, which honors Stan’s classmate and is a tribute to Murray’s enthusiastic involvement in student life at MUS. The scholarship provides financial assistance to qualified students.

MUS – J. R. Hyde, Jr. Scholarship
A bequest from the estate of Joseph R. Hyde, Jr. established this scholarship fund. Income from the endowment provides scholarships for needy, exceptional, and otherwise qualified students attending MUS.

In Memoriam
MUS General Scholarship Fund
A part of the permanent endowment, earnings from this fund provide general scholarship assistance to students who can demonstrate financial need and meet entrance requirements.

Ruth E. and Albert H. Olingy Scholarship Fund
Jeffrey F. Olingy ’67 created this fund in honor of his parents, Ruth E. and Albert H. Olingy. The endowment provides income for scholarships enabling deserving students to attend MUS.

Newton C. Perkins Scholarship
This scholarship was established in memory of Newton Cannon Perkins ’19 by his family, Margaret and John Salmon and Madeleine P. Jehl. The scholarship is to be awarded on the basis of financial need to that boy who has above-average intellectual ability and a strong desire to attend Memphis University School. The scholarship is to be renewed each year, provided the student has a satisfactory academic record and excellent citizenship.

H. Jerry Peters Faculty Scholarship Fund
Alumni, parents, friends, and family established this fund in 2017 to honor Jerry Peters for his life of service as teacher, administrator, and coach at Memphis University School from 1960-2012. Funds from the endowment provide need-based financial assistance for sons of faculty and staff members to attend MUS.

Reader’s Digest Scholarship
This scholarship program was established by a grant from the Wallace Funds, a legacy of the late DeWitt and Lila Acheson Wallace, co-founders of Reader’s Digest. The income from the permanently endowed scholarship fund provides partial scholarship assistance for talented students from middle-income families who have the ability and intention to pay a portion of their child’s tuition. The maximum award does not exceed one-half of the full tuition charge.

Stephen H. Rhea, Jr. Scholarship
This scholarship was established in 1989 by Linda and Herbert Rhea in honor of their son, Stephen H. Rhea, Jr. ’68. Income from the endowed fund is used for general scholarship assistance.

George M. Stratton, Jr. Scholarship
Classmates and friends established this endowed fund in memory of George M. Stratton, Jr. ’66 in 2015. Stratton remained involved with MUS throughout his life and cherished the lifelong friends he made here. The need-based scholarship helps ensure that deserving young men benefit from the same environment and experiences he held so dear.

ENDOWED TEACHING CHAIRS

A. Robert Boelte, Jr. Chair of Excellence in Teaching
This fund was established in 2002 in honor of Bob Boelte by his former students, The Boelte Boys. Boelte’s career at MUS began in 1969 as a teacher of history and English. In 1977, he took on the dual role of director of Admissions and director of College Counseling. Boelte retired as director of College Counseling in 2003 after 34 years of service to MUS. Samuel D. Sudderth III holds the A. Robert Boelte, Jr. Chair of Excellence in Teaching.

Anne and Glenn A. Crosby Chair of Christian Ethics
Nancy and Glenn Crosby, parents of four MUS alumni, Glenn ’77, Mark ’79, Scott ’82, and Andrew ’89, established the Chair of Christian Ethics in 1987 to honor Crosby’s parents. The Crosby Chair recognizes an outstanding educator, in an academic discipline selected by the headmaster, who is an exemplar of Christian ethics in the classroom and in daily life, promoting the mission of MUS to develop “well-rounded young men of strong moral character, consistent with the school’s Christian tradition.” Loyal W. Murphy IV ’86 holds the Crosby Chair of Christian Ethics.

L. Edwin Eleazer III Chair of Excellence in Teaching
The Chair of Excellence in Teaching was established at MUS in 1998 by Ed and Katie Dobbs Eleazer in memory of their son, Ed Eleazer III ’94. The Eleazer Chair is made possible through gifts provided by the James K. Dobbs, Jr. Fund at the Community Foundation of Greater Memphis and by the Eleazers. The permanent endowment supporting the Eleazer Chair will enable the school to attract outstanding new faculty, or to recognize excellent teaching by a current faculty member, in an academic discipline designated by the headmaster. Norman S. Thompson, Jr. holds the Eleazer Chair of Excellence in Teaching.

Sally and Wil Hergenrader Chair of Excellence in Science
Recognizing that the best leadership and teaching are required in the rapidly changing field of science, Sally and Wil Hergenrader endowed this chair in 2007 to support and enhance the MUS faculty in the Science Department. The Hergenraders are the parents of Terry ’75 and Steve ’77 and the grandparents of Wil ’12 and Lewis ’15. R. Wayne Mullins holds the Sally and Wil Hergenrader Chair of Excellence in Science.

Robert J. Hussey, Sr. Chair of Religion
Edwin ’63, Richard, and Robert J. Hussey, Jr. established the Chair of Religion in 1984 to honor their father, Robert J. Hussey, Sr., a founding member of the Board of Trustees of the new MUS and a longtime benefactor of the school. Dr. David B. Jackson is the Robert J. Hussey, Sr. Instructor of Religion.

Sue Hightower Hyde Chair of English
This chair was established in 1963 by the Hyde family, and renamed in 1977, in memory of Sue Hightower Hyde, wife of Joseph R. Hyde, Jr. Sue Hyde was a lover of books, was interested in education, and actively supported her husband in his educational philanthropies. William L. Askew III is the Sue Hightower Hyde Instructor of English.
Ross McCain Lynn Chair of History
A former patron of MUS established this chair in 1964 in honor of Colonel Ross M. Lynn, one of the founders of the new Memphis University School and its first headmaster. Jonathan M. Large is the Ross McCain Lynn Instructor of History.

Ruth McCaughan Morrison Chair of Science
Former chairman of the Board of Trustees, William P. "Buddy" Morrison, along with his sons, John, Price ’75, and Joe ’78, established this chair in 1984 to honor his wife and their mother, Ruth McCaughan Morrison. William S. Taylor is the Ruth McCaughan Morrison Instructor of Science.

Donald Bailey Wiener Chair of Mathematics
The endowed Chair of Mathematics was established in 1985 in honor of Donald B. Wiener through a gift from his brother, Russel Lee Wiener, and his sons, Bailey and Lee ’63. Nancy N. Gates is the Donald Bailey Wiener Instructor of Mathematics.

SPECIAL ENDOWED FUNDS

W. Preston Battle Library Collection
This fund is named in memory of the Honorable W. Preston Battle and in honor of Walter Preston Battle IV ’07 and John Neely Battle ’09. The endowment was established in 2000 by Neely S. Battle and W. Preston Battle III ’71 to provide income to the Joseph R. Hyde, Jr. Library Learning Center for the acquisition of books by and about American writers.

Distinguished Teaching Award
This permanent endowment fund was established in 1990 through a generous bequest by John Murry Springfield. Springfield joined the Memphis University School faculty in 1958 and served as an instructor in English and mathematics until 1971. From 1971 until his death in August 1989, Springfield served as principal of the Hull Lower School. The monetary award is given annually to an MUS faculty member who demonstrates excellence in both the classroom and extracurricular activities.

Faculty Endowment Fund
A part of the permanent endowment, earnings from this fund provide financial assistance that adds a measure of quality as reflected in enhanced faculty salaries.

Edward E. Ford Foundation Sports Facility Fund
This fund was endowed in 1989 by the Edward E. Ford Foundation to provide for the operation and maintenance of the Sue H. Hyde Sports and Physical Education Center.

Edward E. Ford Foundation Teachers Fund
Endowed by the Edward E. Ford Foundation in 1984, this fund was established to enhance faculty salaries so that MUS can attract and retain excellent classroom teachers.

Edward A. Grinder Endowment for Science
This fund was established in 2017 in honor of Edward A. Grinder ’22 by his parents, Megan and Brett Grinder ’91. Income from the endowment provides discretionary funding for the Science Department, including the purchase of supplies and equipment, additional programs, or funding professional development for Science Department faculty.

Jean Barbee Hale Award for Outstanding Service
The Jean Barbee Hale Award for Outstanding Service was established in 1998 by family and friends to honor Jean Hale for her 24 years of service and dedication to Memphis University School. The income from the endowment provides a monetary award that is given each year to a member of the MUS family who has exhibited outstanding loyalty, responsibility, dedication, and commitment to excellence in service to the school.

Hale Fellowship for Faculty Development
The income from this fund provides the financial support for a faculty member to pursue professional research, study, and travel during the summer months. Ben Hale created the first such fund at MUS in 2002 to honor his sons Scott ’78, Dennis ’80, and Steve ’84. Faculty members submit proposals each year from which the Hale Fellow is selected.

Halliday Library Collection
Dot and Bill Halliday established the Halliday Library Collection in 2000 to support the resources of the Joseph R. Hyde, Jr. Library Learning Center. Earnings from the endowment provide funds for the purchase of books and journals. Dot Halliday was a longtime MUS bookstore staff member. The Hallidays have three sons who attended MUS: Charles B. Allen ’77, William P. Halliday III ’82, and Allen P. Halliday ’85.

Joseph R. Hyde III Faculty Endowment Fund
This fund was established in 1989 in honor of alumnus and board member Joseph R. "Pitt" Hyde III ’61. Earnings from the endowment provide income used for the improvement of faculty salaries.

Journalism Summer Fellowship Endowment
Former editors and staff of The Owl's Hoot established this fund in 2008 in honor of Norman S. Thompson’s 35th anniversary at Memphis University School. Income from the endowment provides tuition and travel expenses for The Owl's Hoot editor to attend the Columbia Scholastic Press Association journalism workshop at Columbia University each summer.

Library Endowment Fund
A part of the permanent endowment, earnings from this fund provide budgetary assistance that is designated specifically for use in procuring books and resources for the Joseph R. Hyde, Jr. Library Learning Center.

Loeb Endowment for Academic Support
As MUS raises its academic standards, the school must likewise raise its level of academic support. Trustee Robert E. Loeb ’73 established this endowment in 2003 during the Doors to New Opportunities Campaign. The income is used by the academic dean to develop and fund programs that provide academic support.
Challace J. McMillin Defensive Coaching Fund
This endowment was established in 2017 by players from the 1967 football team to honor the distinguished career of their defensive coach, Challace McMillin. Income from the endowment provides professional development opportunities for coaches to ensure that the best defensive strategies and current training techniques are available to MUS athletes.

John M. Nail Endowment Fund
This fund was established in 1988 in memory of John M. Nail by his former students. Nail taught English and history at MUS in the late 1950s, instilling in his students an enduring “love of learning.” Income from the endowment provides funds to support faculty development: (1) the John M. Nail Outstanding Teaching Award; (2) the John M. Nail Teaching Fellowship; and, (3) the John M. Nail Departmental Award. The recipient of the awards and fellowship is determined by the Senior Class and is presented each year to a faculty member who teaches in the Upper School.

Mark Cooper Powell Award Fund
Given in honor of Mark Cooper Powell ’80 by his parents, Marilyn and Edward Powell, income from this fund provides an award to the graduating senior who, through persistence and courage during his career at Memphis University School, has shown the greatest development of character and scholarship.

James C. Rainer IV Family Library Collection
Missy and Jim Rainer ’77 established this fund in 2000 in honor of their sons Jimbo ’05, Alex ’06, Peter ’10, and Wil ’13. Income from the endowment provides funds to purchase books by and about Southern writers for the Joseph R. Hyde, Jr. Library Learning Center.

King and Judy Rogers Endowment for Leadership Development
Judy and King Rogers, parents of King W. Rogers IV ’98, provided this endowment in 2000 to fund annual leadership development programs for MUS students. The income from the fund provides the resources to bring a renowned speaker to campus and sponsor additional leadership programs.

Andrew F. Saunders III Endowment for Theater Production
Martha and Tom Horton established this fund in 2010 to honor Andy Saunders at the time of his retirement from MUS after 38 years on the faculty. Income from the endowment provides funding for theater productions.

Roy E. Winegardner Fellowships
Former Trustee Michael D. Rose established this fund in 2010 to honor the memory of his friend and mentor, Roy E. Winegardner. Former chairman and CEO of Holiday Inns, Inc., Winegardner was a pioneer and leader in the hospitality industry and the father of alumnus Diego P. Winegardner ’87. The income from the endowment provides summer fellowships to enrich student talents and the intellectual and leadership climate of MUS. The fellowships, for rising juniors and seniors on need-based financial aid, are determined by approval of the school administration.
Under sunny September skies before the Homecoming 2016 football game, alumni who played for legendary coach Jake Rudolph gathered with family, friends, and fans for the dedication of the Jacob Courtnay Rudolph Plaza – and the unveiling of a statue in his honor – at the entrance to Stokes Stadium. The ceremony featured former Owl football players Owen Tabor ’85, Parker Phillips ’85, and Rudolph’s youngest son, David Rudolph ’81, along with Headmaster Ellis Haguewood.

Rudolph is legendary to thousands of alumni as much for his coaching on Hull-Dobbs Athletic Field as for his teaching about life. The idea to honor him in a permanent way was conceived by Phillips and supported by many alumni who played for him during his 39 years as head football coach and athletic director.

Leaders of the fundraising campaign included Tabor as chairman along with the following co-chairs who encouraged fellow Owls to support the effort: Trow Gillespie ’65 and Kent Wunderlich ’66, 1960s Committee; Ben Adams ’74 and Chip Grayson ’78, 1970s Committee; Jim Burnett ’83 and Andy McCarroll ’86, 1980s Committee; and Trevor Benitone ’91 and Will Thompson ’95, 1990s Committee.

More than 270 alumni from 1960 through 2010 contributed to the campaign for the statue and accompanying landscaping work in front of Stokes Stadium.

“Usually raising money is difficult. This was not,” Tabor said. “When the men we talked to looked back on their youth and acknowledged who made them the people they are today, they thought of Jake Rudolph.”

Haguewood spoke of Coach Rudolph’s legacy and the importance of remembering men like him not only for their contributions, but also because their lives inspire us. “Alumni who played under his tutelage inculcated the values he taught through the game of football – courage, perseverance, teamwork, discipline, consistency, excellence, and individual responsibility,” he said.

David Rudolph unveiled the statue, which was sculpted by internationally acclaimed artist Zenos Frudakis of Philadelphia. Then Haguewood led the crowd in 15 Snappy Rahs in Coach Rudolph’s honor.

COACH RUDOLPH’S WINNING CAREER

Jake Rudolph came to MUS in 1959, and during his 39 years at the school, his football teams went 295-119-4. Winning 10 district titles, six regional titles, two state runner-up titles, and the 1985 state AA championship, his teams always displayed teamwork and perseverance. He was honored over the years with many awards, including Tennessee Coach of the Year, the Rex Dockery Award, the Lawrenceburg Touchdown Club Coach of the Year, and the Memphis Quarterback Club Coach of the Year. He was inducted into the TSSAA Hall of Fame, the Tennessee Football Coaches Association Hall of Fame, the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame, and the Georgia Tech Athletics Hall of Fame.

Ellis Haguewood helps David Rudolph unveil the statue of his father, legendary Coach Jake Rudolph.

Family, former players, and fans gathered in June to honor an MUS icon and legend, former basketball Head Coach Jerry Peters, as the Memphis University School community dedicated the basketball court in Ross Lynn Arena in the name of Peters and his wife, Ruth.

Alumni led the effort to commemorate Coach Peters’ 52-year career at MUS, naming the court and the school’s history award and endowing a scholarship fund for the sons of faculty and staff.

Arriving in 1960, Peters became varsity basketball head coach in 1964, a title he held until his retirement in 2012. Under his leadership the program was one of the best in the state, and Peters crowned his career with more than 1,000 wins – more than any coach in the Shelby-Metro area – and the 2007 state championship. Peters also served as an instructor of history and government, an administrator, and from 1960-1978, varsity track and cross-country coach. Along the way the couple’s four sons – Jeff ’79, Judd ’81, Jon ’84, and Jason ’88 – graduated from MUS.

Ruth covered her face in disbelief when the couple’s five grandsons unveiled the words Ruth and Jerry Peters Court on the gym floor, as she was expecting it to bear only her husband’s name. “You don’t catch me off guard very often,” she said. “The mother of four boys is usually ready for anything. But this caught me. Thank you so much.”

Coach Peters also expressed his gratitude. “It means so much to have you all here. Not only people from MUS but people from other schools. That really says a lot to me.”

Among the supporters was Bubba Luckett, head basketball coach at rival Christian Brothers High School.

Calling Peters the “best high school basketball coach Memphis has ever had,” Luckett described how Peters gave him guidance during a tough season early in his career, “Go to practice tomorrow like you’re a champion,” Peters said. “Your players will start acting like they are better.” Luckett took that advice, and he said it helped turn the Brothers’ season around.

“[Coach Peters] had an influence on a CBHS basketball year and never knew it.”

Ruth, called Mrs. Coach by the players, was a constant source of support for the team. She tutored students, supervised cheerleaders, oversaw laundry detail, organized tournament hospitality rooms, and served as the program’s biggest fan.

Everybody had a role,” said former MUS basketball great Jim Barton ’85, who led the fundraising effort and served as master of ceremonies for the dedication. “Coach Peters coached, the players played, and Ruth managed everything else.”

Barton spoke of Coach Peters’ exemplary preparation, from washing uniforms to compiling pregame scouting reports. “He was a data guy before data was cool. He kept stats on everything … he knew where everybody stood. On the sidelines Coach always seemed to be in control. No matter how intense the game, he had an eerie calm about him because he was ready for the moment.”

Headmaster Ellis Haguewood thanked the Peters family for their dedication to the MUS community and paid tribute to Jerry Peters for inspiring excellence both on the court and in the classroom.

“For me, Coach Peters always epitomized the ideal teacher and coach in an independent school for boys – tough but fair in the classroom, demanding on the playing fields, and unyielding in his efforts to make boys ‘do things right.’ Punctuality, attention to details, responsibility, preparation, unselfishness, patience, focus, perseverance, discipline, organization – he set the very highest standards for himself, and he did things right.”

Over the years Coach Peters has received various teaching awards and coaching honors, including the Tennessee Association of Independent Schools’ Hubert Smothers Award for Distinguished Teaching. He was inducted into the TSSAA Hall of Fame, the Rhodes Athletic Hall of Fame, and the Memphis Amateur Sports Hall of Fame.

Before the Kroeker-Petrosyan Fencing Center opened on the MUS campus, the fencing team had to transport and set up their equipment for each practice in Todd-Snowden Gymnasium or the Dining Hall.

The new 4,100-square-foot center, located on the lower level of the McCaughan Science Center, features eight grounded metal fencing strips with international-caliber scoring equipment suspended from the ceiling, storage space for the team’s gear, and even a flat-screen TV – typically playing fencing competitions.

“We are no longer nomads,” Jacob Webb ’18 said during a dedication ceremony February 28. “We can now concentrate on winning more championships.”

Coach Brad Kroeker, who has been coaching the MUS varsity team for eight years and the club team since 2004, said the center is unequaled in the Mid-South, noting that it was a hot topic among high school coaches at the last Junior National Fencing Championships in Kansas City. Comparable facilities are as far away as Stanford University, he said. “We are truly in a class with the best!”

The center was made possible through the generosity of Bita and Jim Webb and their son, Jacob, a fencer since seventh grade.

“After I attended the first fencing practice, I knew I had found a sport that fit me, and now I look forward to fencing in college and beyond,” Jacob said.

MUS is a leader in fencing in Tennessee, capturing four consecutive state titles (2012-2015). By hosting local and regional tournaments at the center, Kroeker said, MUS will help elevate the sport throughout the region.

At the dedication, Headmaster Ellis Haguewood thanked the Webbs for underwriting the project and naming the center in honor of Kroeker and Coach Sergey Petrosyan. “I have the very greatest admiration and respect for these men professionally and personally. They understand the mission of MUS and the place of their sport in supporting that mission. They have an excellent knowledge of the sport, and they are influential in the lives of their students each day.”

Haguewood also thanked Brett Grinder ’91, chairman of the Building and Grounds Committee of the Board of Trustees, and the work of his construction company, Grinder, Taber & Grinder. “Project manager Jonathan Hastings and his team have done a superb job of transforming this area into a first-rate fencing center,” he said.

In his closing remarks, Jacob Webb expressed appreciation to the coaches for their encouragement and instruction, not only in fencing but also in character development. “They say, ‘Fence as hard as you are able on the strip to win, but leave any animosity behind when the match is over,’” he said. “My greatest hope is that this world-class fencing facility will be enjoyed by many future classes so they can benefit from the gifts I have been blessed with from MUS and our fine fencing coaches.”

MISSION STATEMENT

Memphis University School is a college-preparatory school dedicated to academic excellence, cultivation of service and leadership, and the development of well-rounded young men of strong moral character, consistent with the school’s Christian tradition.

PHILOSOPHY

Memphis University School is committed to high standards of honor and integrity, academic performance, service, leadership and athletics, and to the transmission of Judeo-Christian values.

An MUS education is characterized by a rigorous curriculum, a lively exchange of ideas, supportive teaching, and adherence to an honor code. Its objective is to instruct students in the skills and subject matter of the humanities and sciences, to engender successful habits and techniques of learning, and to instill the foremost principles of personal responsibility, morality, and gentlemanly conduct.

A dynamic extracurricular program devoted to excellence promotes leadership and service and encourages development of physical fitness and a rich variety of talents and interests.

Non-denominational and non-sectarian, MUS seeks to foster a respectful appreciation of the spiritual nature of people and honors the sincere expression of widely different faiths. MUS aspires to be a community of mutual respect and concern regardless of individual differences.
